

DAVID PERCY, Q.C., B.A., LLM

David Percy is Dean of the Faculty of Law at the University of Alberta and a Queen's Counsel. He holds a B.A. from the University of Oxford, an LLM degree from the University of Virginia and is a member of the Law Society of Alberta. He teaches Contracts, Construction Law, Natural Resources Law, Oil and Gas Law and is co-editor of Boyle & Percy "Contracts, Cases and Commentaries, now in its seventh edition. He has written extensively in the area of construction law and has given over sixty seminars in this topic to industry groups. In 1995 he received the WPM Kennedy award for excellence in Canadian law teaching and in 1996 the Rutherford Award for excellence in undergraduate teaching at the University of Alberta. David is now starting his 29th year of instructing the ACA "Law and the Construction Industry" course.

---

BOB EDEN, Q.C., B.Sc., P.Eng., LLB

Bob Eden is currently with NAC Constructors Ltd. Prior to joining the firm he was with the firm of Borden Ladner Gervais LLP and previously served as Chairman and member of the Executive Management of a major Canadian construction group. He obtained from the University of Alberta a B.Sc. degree and an LLB degree. Bob has over 30 years experience advising owners, engineers and contractors and has been involved in every aspect of construction law in North America and overseas. He is a member of APEGGA and the Law Society of Alberta. He has been an instructor with the ACA course for 27 years and is actively involved, on a hands-on basis, in all construction issues from bidding, performance and completion, through to dispute resolution. Bob is a chartered Arbitrator and has participated in the successful mediation of major construction disputes in Canada and the U.S.

